Read It

Multiple meaning words are words that are spelled the same but depending on how they are used, can be a verb that shows action or an adjective that describes something.

Read the sentences out loud. Decide if the underlined word is a verb or an adjective. Write verb or adjective on the line.

I don't like to clean my room. _____

My mom said to put on a clean shirt. _____

We helped free the cat from the tree. _____

I got a free pencil from my friend. _____

Listening Skills

After a child has written a story and shared it with someone, it is nice for the author to receive feedback. Here are three ways that you can offer feedback to an author.

Something I especially like about your story is _____.

A suggestion I have for your story is _____. (When we suggest, we give a person an idea that would help their work to be even better to help the reader understand the writing.)

A question I have about your story is _____?
