Episode 108: Words with -ou-

and -ow-

Book: Madlenka by Peter Sis

Letter Heroes

Read the story out loud. Use what you know about the /ow/ sound to read the underlined words.

The /ow/ sound can be written as ou at the beginning of words like out, and in the middle of words like about.

The /ow/ sound can also be written as ow at the beginning of words like owl, in the middle of words like town, and at the end of words like cow.

Little Mouse

Little Mouse stayed in a little brown house. He lived in a town down south right next to his best friend the old round Cow.
Cow and Mouse were best friends. One day,
Mouse said, "We should plant a garden together."

They found the perfect spot next to Owl's place. Mouse and Cow worked all day and night planting their garden.

They were very proud of their new friendship garden. It grew beautifully! Animals all around talked about how colorful all the flowers were. Sometimes a crowd would gather and new friends would be found. What else would you do in a friendship garden?

Read It

Look at the map from the book Madlenka, by Peter Sis.

- How does this map help describe where Madlenka lives?
- Who are the people in Madlenka's community?
- How is Madlenka's community like the community you live in? How is it different?
