

A DAY ON THE LANSING RIVER TRAIL

ACTIVITY GUIDE

EPISODE 108: RIVERS AND LAKES, OH MY!

Is there a place that you want to spend the day, a place where there are things to see and do, maybe even a place that you have never visited before but really would like to go?

Since you can't go alone, how would you convince someone to go with you? One answer to this question is to write a pitch, or speech, to persuade someone to be your travel partner.

Use the graphic organizer below to help you organize your ideas. Once you get your ideas down, determine the most important parts to highlight and write your pitch.
